Our Juror

Paul Bingham grew up on a dairy farm in Northern Utah. He later graduated with a BA from Weber State University in 1967. He went to work as a Marketing Executive at Xerox Corporation in San Francisco.

He established the Bingham Gallery in 1974 in Los Altos, Ca. and became the dealer for Edith Hamlin, Maynard Dixon's Widow in 1974. He later bought the Maynard Dixon property in Mount Carmel and formed The Thunderbird Foundation for the Arts in 1999 and began organizing the important annual event "Maynard Dixon Country" Dixon Country".
